MONK GIBSON WILL PAY THE PENALTY

Texas Negro to be Hanged Tomorrow for Murder of Woman and Her Four Children.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Cuero, Texas, June 26.—The story of one of the most sensational and dastardly crimes that ever stirred Texas will be brought to a close tomorrow, when Monk Gibson, the galloping man, is to be hanged for the murder of the Condit family in Jackson county nearly three years ago.

The murder of Mrs. A. J. Condit and her four children occurred on the Condit farm near the town of Elgin early in October, 1905. The husband and father was summoned from his work in the field by Monk Gibson, a negro youth, and told that something had occurred at his house. When he arrived home he found the terribly hacked bodies of his wife and four children lying about the house and in the yard. Monk Gibson told a story of having seen a negro leave the place and he himself was not at first suspected. He failed to stick to his story, however, and investigation by the authorities led to the fastening of suspicion upon him. After he was taken into custody he made a sensational confession for some time. Fear of a lynching led to a speedy trial, which resulted in his conviction and sentence to death. A new trial was obtained and this and appeals to the higher courts have delayed the carrying out of the sentence for more than two years. Another negro was executed more than a year ago on the charge of having been an accomplice of the Gibson boy in the murder of the Condit family.

BRAGG SAYS STATE
MAY BE DEMOCRATIC

Veteran Democratic Leader Says That
Bryan Talks Too Much, However,
But He May Carry Wisconsin.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Milwaukee, Wis., June 26.—A special to the Evening Wisconsin from Fond du Lac says Bryan talks too much. That is ruled by the moneyed interest. Johnson would get lost if placed in the White House, but John Sharpe Williams is the type of a man needed for the presidency, according to General B. S. Bragg, former congressman, veteran of the Civil war, and lately United States counsel in Hong Kong. "The little general," as Bragg is widely known, was in a talkative mood. At first he refused to discuss political affairs and said that he was out of it, but finally waded into the subject before he was aware of it himself.

"If Bryan had known enough to keep his mouth shut when he returned from Europe he would have walked away from Taft at the presidential election," said Bragg, as he pushed his chair toward a sunnier spot on the veranda of his home. "Bryan has a terrible affliction, the talk disease," he wants to talk, and must talk. Why he began to talk the moment he stepped on the pier after his trip across the ocean and has been talking ever since. It would have been better for Bryan to have acted the part of a cultured gentleman of travel who returns quietly and resumes the routine without display. But that would not have been Bryan; no, indeed, he must talk or burst. Although he is not the candidate of the democratic party at present, I notice that Bryan has been freely expressing his views upon the republican platform which is certainly bad enough. Why doesn't he wait until he is nominated?"

When asked as to how Wisconsin would vote next fall, Bragg said: "It would not surprise me if Bryan got Wisconsin. La Follette and Bryan have been kissing each other for some time, each has been telling what a great man the other is. This friendship will win many red-headed La Follette votes for Bryan." As to Johnson, the general said: "Johnson is a well balanced fellow, honest, sincere, and all that, but I do not think he is the man for the presidency; he would be lost if taken from his home and placed in the White House where he would be surrounded by the senate. He may possibly carry the state of Minnesota, but I doubt it. Taft is a man whose largeness reminds me in some respects to our dead ex-president, Grover Cleveland," said the "little general" as he was reviewing other presidential aspirants. "He reminds me of a mass of putty which can be easily molded. If elected he will be ruled by the senate, which represents the moneyed interest, of which he is also a representative. As to which is the best man—Taft or Bryan—I do not think much of either of them."

INTERCOLLEGIATE REGATTA
ON THE HUDSON TOMORROWWisconsin Crew Will Row With Four Other Crews In Four-Mile Race Of Eight-Oared Shells.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 26.—All Poughkeepsie is in anticipation of the intercollegiate regatta on the Hudson tomorrow. The town wears a holiday appearance, the colors of all the universities represented being displayed conspicuously in the principal streets. Visitors are already arriving, and it is predicted that tomorrow's crowd will be the largest that ever witnessed a rowing event in America. The customary arrangements have been made for running observation trains.

The programme of events will be the same as in former years. The positions drawn by the various crews are as follows:

Freshman eights—Syracuse 1, Wisconsin 2, Pennsylvania 3, Cornell 4, Columbia 5.

Varsity fours—Syracuse 1, Cornell 2, Columbia 3, Pennsylvania 4.

Varsity eights—Wisconsin 1, Cornell 2, Pennsylvania 3, Columbia 4, Syracuse 5.

Of these places the Syracuse four-oared and freshman crews are believed to have the most favorable locations in their events, as the tide, which begins about 3 o'clock, is strong along the shore about 4:30, when the first two races will be rowed. In the race for varsity eights Pennsylvania and Columbia have the best places, provided the weather is fair. Otherwise Wisconsin has the favored position.

Sports across that there is a strong element of uncertainty this year as to the winner of the contests, particularly of the big race. In the regatta of recently past seasons, a Cornell victory has always been regarded as more or less of a foregone conclusion. This year, however, fate seems to have been against the Huskies, and it is contended that the other crews will have at least an even show for victory.

The field in the varsity race is much smaller than it has been for several years, owing to the withdrawal of the Georgetown and the Naval Academy crews. This has left only Wisconsin, Columbia, Pennsylvania, Syracuse and Cornell to complete in the big event.

Cornell, the winner of so many races in this past, and Columbia, which made an excellent showing last year, have each met with a defeat this year, the former lowering her colors to Harvard, and Columbia being defeated this spring by the midshipmen crew at Annapolis. This leaves Syracuse, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin to figure on, and among them there seems to be but little choice. Syracuse has credit of a five-length victory over Annapolis, and Pennsylvania has been uniformly successful in her races this spring. The Wisconsin crew is more or less of an unknown quantity here, but the Badgers have never failed to turn out a creditable eight and a victory tomorrow would cause no great surprise among the aquatic enthusiasts.

The intercollegiate regatta tomorrow will be the thirteenth held on the Poughkeepsie course. The Intercollegiate Rowing Association was organized in 1895, and Cornell, Columbia and Pennsylvania were represented by crews. Columbia won, her one lone victory. In 1896, Harvard, having broken with Yale and arranged a race with Cornell, came to the Hudson as an invited guest. Cornell won both the varsity and freshman races. The year following with Cornell the New Haven men were forced to come to the Hudson to compete with Harvard. It was stipulated, however, that Cornell, Yale and Harvard should row in one race, while Cornell, Columbia and Pennsylvania should compete in another. The races were rowed a week apart, Cornell winning both.

There was no race on the Hudson in 1898. Cornell went to New London to meet Harvard and Yale, and later went up to Saratoga lake to row against Pennsylvania, Columbia and Wisconsin, the last named college having been invited to compete. Cornell won at New London, but was beaten by Pennsylvania at Saratoga lake. Since 1899 the regatta has been held here. In that year a four-oared race was added to the programme, and three races have been on the card ever since. Pennsylvania won the varsity race in 1899 and 1900. The latter year Georgetown came in, and Syracuse sent a crew in 1901. After that six crews took part until last year, when the Navy eight was entered.

Of the total Cornell has won the regatta eight times, Pennsylvania three times and Columbia and Syracuse once each. Cornell won all three races in 1902 and 1903.

The course records are as follows: Varsity fours, two miles, Syracuse, 1905, 10 minutes 15 seconds; freshmen eights, two miles, Cornell, 1902, 9 minutes 18 seconds; varsity eights, four miles, Cornell, 1901, 18 minutes 51-1-5 seconds.

MILWAUKEE JOURNAL
PRINTS WEIRD TALE

Says That the Free Press Stock Has
Been Placed in Trust for Plister

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Milwaukee, Wis., June 26.—The Milwaukee Journal this afternoon prints a statement that a new alignment has come into Wisconsin politics and that Charles Plister, Lieut. Governor, and United States Senator Isaac Stephenson comprise one faction while the other is led by Senator La Follette and his progressive party. The Journal also states that Senator Stephenson no longer owns the controlling interest in the Free Press, the same having been placed in the hands of a trust company in Milwaukee to be delivered to Charles Plister and Mr. Connor, if both the Free Press and Sentinel support Mr. Stephenson for the United States senate. The Journal quotes W. S. Goodland, publisher of the Racine Times, as authority for the report and states that he has verified the story and states it was told to him by a gentleman who had it from Senator Stephenson himself. This will mean a bitter political factional fight this coming fall.

The students will engage in religious study and listen to address by a number of men of note. Serious work will not occupy all of the time, however, as tennis, baseball and other athletic sports are provided for in every day's schedule. The conference will continue ten days, at the end of which time it will give way to the sessions of the Women's Home Missionary Summer School. Later in the summer there will be meetings of the Summer school for Sunday school workers and the summer school for Women's Foreign Missionary Societies.

POLITICAL DOPE
ON SENATORSHIP

NEW LINE-UP OF THE FACTIONS
IS EXPECTED NOW.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Madison, Wis., June 26.—Senator Stephenson's announcement that he is a candidate for nomination for United States senator has been a bomb shell in the camps of the opposition in Madison. It is evidently leading to a parting of the ways in the famous machine that has for six years played the part of the steam roller in Wisconsin politics.

With Stephenson in the field, Hatten, an avowed candidate with the promise of La Follette's support for financing his presidential campaign; District Attorney McGovern, sidetracked from gubernatorial aspirations with a senatorial possibility, and S. A. Cook, of Neenah, with the bee in his bonnet, the war promises to be a merry one. There are vague rumors about the capitol today that a feud between Mr. Stephenson and the now national chairman, A. T. Rogers, La Follette's right hand man, at the national convention in Chicago, is in progress. It is also reported that Stephenson called in the publisher and president of the Milwaukee Free Press and placed them on record as favoring his candidacy before leaving Milwaukee. In pretty strong language, it is also again said that Stephenson and Stephenson have formed an alliance with Connor left out, but this is hardly credited as Connor announced his candidacy for re-nomination for lieutenant governor simultaneously with Stephenson's for the senate.

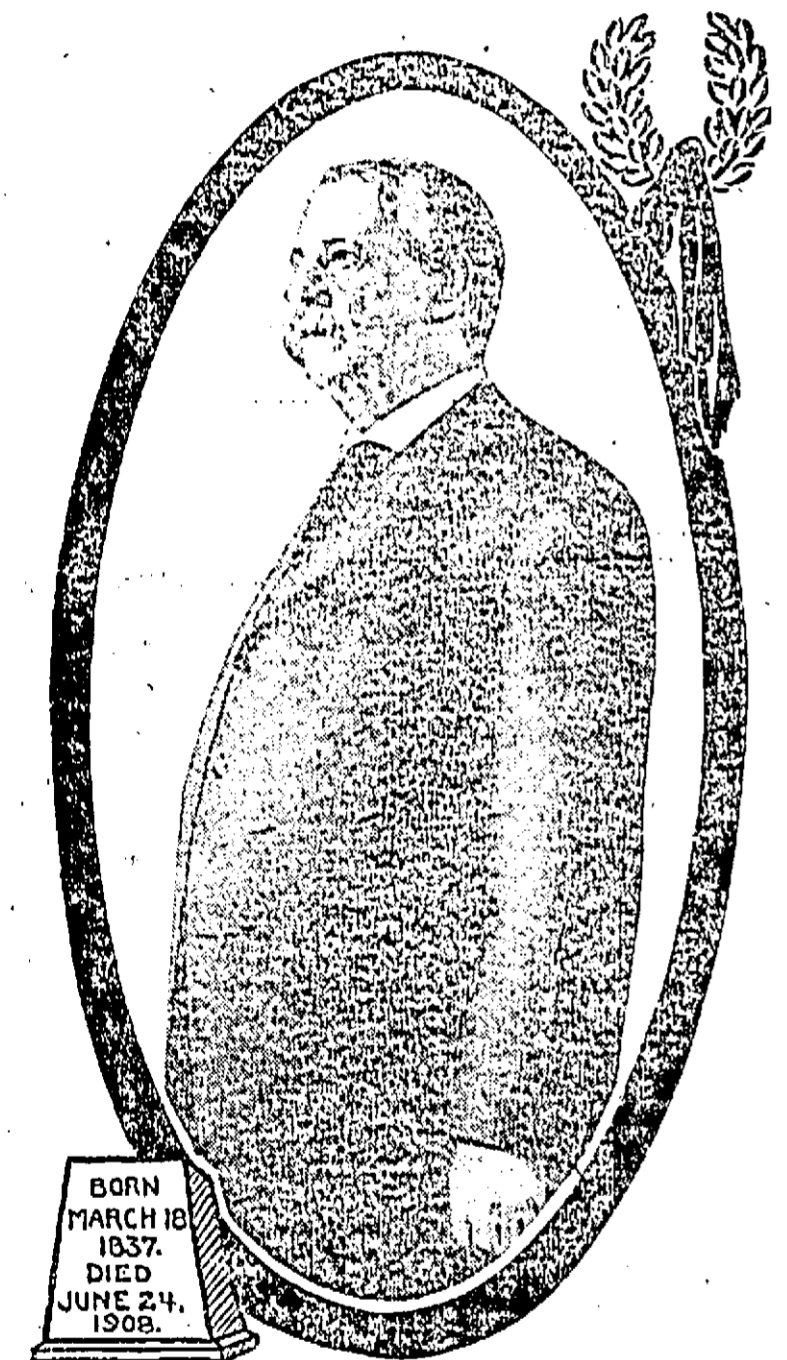

The opponents of Stephenson claim he has broken his promise not to become a candidate for re-election if elected by the legislature for the short term.

Stephenson's friends say this promise was made if he was given a clear field, which he was not, and that anyway the people want him.

Just how it will end is hard to see. La Follette can not turn down his followers and support Stephenson and he can hardly afford to turn down the man who financed his campaigns in the past.

The fact that Stephenson was on one side of the fence and La Follette on the other in the administration measures before congress and that Stephenson failed to respond to La Follette's leadership in Washington is also said to have influenced much of the talk that is now being heard.

District Attorney McGovern will not withdraw, Hatten appears to be not in the field to stay, and Cook is really an independent candidate. Some of the real radicals want Cooper to run, but whether Senator La Follette wants him or not remains to be seen.

at the Cleveland residence and at the cemetery, in compliance with wishes not only of Mrs. Cleveland, but of the late Mr. Cleveland as well.

Not more than one hundred and fifty persons attended the services at the house, including relatives and friends.

The list of pallbearers who were active, not honorary, is as follows: Paul Morton, Professor John G. Hibben, Dean Andrew F. West, Professor Paul Van Dyke, President John H. Finley, Richard Watson Gilber, Commodore E. C. Condit, George H. McClellan, Professor Howard McClellan, A. D. Russell, Julius S. Morgan and Richard Stockton.

MAY RAISE SCHOOL AGE TO SIX YEARS

Law Will Come Up Before Next Legislature Which May Cut Out Kindergartens.

When the next legislature convenes they will be called upon to consider a proposed amendment to the constitution of the state, with regard to the minimum age of school children. Under section 2, of article 4, of the state constitution, schools are to be free and without charge for tuition in all children between the ages of four and twenty years. In the last legislature a proposed amendment to the constitution was introduced changing the minimum age from four to six years. The legislature passed this amendment and it will now come up before the next legislature and if it passes that it will be submitted to the people. The constitution itself requires that this be the procedure with respect to any amendment.

The not result of this amendment, if it is passed by both the legislature and the people, will be that it will cut out all the kindergartens. The proposition to raise the age of children in the northern part of the state where the kindergarten system is practically nonexistent. It was passed by the last legislature in 1907 with little opposition on account of an opinion given by the attorney general of the state that it would not affect the kindergartens.

Upon further investigation it was found that this was not so. The southern part of the state, which has spent large amounts of money in fitting out and getting into running order a kindergarten system, would lose heavily if this amendment was incorporated into the constitution. Much opposition has been developed lately against this proposed change especially in the southern part of the state.

DELUSIONS DUE TO DOSE OF MORPHINE

Mrs. Belle King Spent the Night at
Police Station and Was Released
This Morning.

In response to a telephone message received at the police station about eight o'clock last evening, Officers Mason and Brown journeyed in the patrol wagon to the corner of Prairie and St. Mary's avenues and took into custody Mrs. Belle King, a woman about fifty-five years of age who has her lodgings in a room facing the Corn Exchange square and whose odd behavior for several successive nights had attracted attention. Mrs. King was formerly Mrs. Peter Bennett of Beloit and secured a divorce and the right to resume her maiden name several years ago. She told the officers that she had been patrolling the neighborhood in question because she wished to save a certain young girl whom she believed had been lured into an immoral resort. This hallucination was not dissimilar to a number of others which had caused her to complain to the police department on various occasions, and was ascribed by the patrolmen to the influence of morphine. A bottle containing this drug, $11.10 in money, and a paper which appeared to be her will, certifying that she had life insurance to the amount of $180 in the Metropolitan company, and that it was to be paid to William Ward in event of her death, the police being in keeping of Clerk of Court Jesse Earle, were found in a bundle which she carried. The morning the woman had entirely recovered from her delusions of last evening and was released in order that she might keep an engagement to do housework for a certain local family.

Highway Committee Took Ride: Officer Peter Chelson took the members of the highway committee of the common council and the city engineer out for a ride in the patrol wagon this afternoon. Several streets where improvements have been recommended were inspected.

Loan Band Invited: The Loan band of the Congregational church has been invited to a picnic supper by Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Jeffers on next Tuesday. The supper will be served on the lawn at the Jeffers home at six o'clock. The band and their friends of the sterner sex are both invited.

DELUSIONS DUE TO DOSE OF MORPHINE

Mrs. Belle King Spent the Night at
Police Station and Was Released
This Morning.

In response to a telephone message received at the police station about eight o'clock last evening, Officers Mason and Brown journeyed in the patrol wagon to the corner of Prairie and St. Mary's avenues and took into custody Mrs. Belle King, a woman about fifty-five years of age who has her lodgings in a room facing the Corn Exchange square and whose odd behavior for several successive nights had attracted attention. Mrs. King was formerly Mrs. Peter Bennett of Beloit and secured a divorce and the right to resume her maiden name several years ago. She told the officers that she had been patrolling the neighborhood in question because she wished to save a certain young girl whom she believed had been lured into an immoral resort. This hallucination was not dissimilar to a number of others which had caused her to complain to the police department on various occasions, and was ascribed by the patrolmen to the influence of morphine. A bottle containing this drug, $11.10 in money, and a paper which appeared to be her will, certifying that she had life insurance to the amount of $180 in the Metropolitan company, and that it was to be paid to William Ward in event of her death, the police being in keeping of Clerk of Court Jesse Earle, were found in a bundle which she carried. The morning the woman had entirely recovered from her delusions of last evening and was released in order that she might keep an engagement to do housework for a certain local family.

Public Utilities on Carpet: Officers of the Janesville public utilities are explaining to Supervisor of Assessments Frank P. Starr and the assessors this afternoon just what their outlays for improvements during the past year have been and what they think they ought to be assessed. This preliminary conference is held in the hope of lightening the labors of the board of review which meets on July 6.

Highway Committee Took Ride: Officer Peter Chelson took the members of the highway committee of the common council and the city engineer out for a ride in the patrol wagon this afternoon. Several streets where improvements have been recommended were inspected.

Loan Band Invited: The Loan band of the Congregational church has been invited to a picnic supper by Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Jeffers on next Tuesday. The supper will be served on the lawn at the Jeffers home at six o'clock. The band and their friends of the sterner sex are both invited.

Teheran, Persia, June 26.—What the result of the recent revolutionary outbreak in Persia will be is not yet understood. The shah is reportedly losing his support and intervention, by Russia. It is thought, may occur at any time. It is Russia's attempt to straighten out the tangled political problems which fundamentally caused the outbreak. The reactionaries strongly object to any movement of this kind and still more strongly object to the past methods of the shah.

For two years, ever since a constitutional government was proclaimed by the shah of Persia, that country has been in the throes of a revolution, which has been general in character, and included within its scope the inhabitants of larger and smaller cities. The shah reluctantly proclaimed the constitution and has cast his lot with the reactionaries, who are opposed to it because they hold that it is contrary to their best interests. The other party, the constitutionalists, have been fighting to maintain their rights guaranteed to them by the constitution. It is stated that during the few years of warfare between 30,000 and 40,000 lives have been sacrificed.

One particularly significant dispatch received within the last few days was that which described the warlike preparations of the shah in arming the camp which he has established without the confines of his capital. There he gathered troops and a large quantity of munitions and the camp, it was said, had become a fortress. As his commander in chief there the sovereign appointed Amir Bahador-joni, well known for his decision and severity of discipline.

The vital question between the shah and his people has been the attempt of the latter to compel their monarch to abide by his pledge to observe the constitution, the institution of which in this ancient, oriental kingdom has been one of the marvels of the twentieth century. This pledge, the people and their representatives assembly said, had been broken in every respect, and their indignation has been great. Meanwhile the empire has been divided into English and Russian spheres of influence, and the complications with Russia on the border and Turkey on the other have increased the hostility between the internal factions.

HAWKEYES CHEER BRYAN

IOWA'S DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION INDORSES HIM.

Tilt Over Liquor Plank the Only Discard—Features of the Platform Adopted.

Sioux City, Ia., June 26.—Enlivened in its last hours by a spirited contest over the "liquor" plank in its platform, the fight on which had been previously waged for four hours in the committee on resolutions, the Democratic state convention was brought to a close at 6:45 o'clock Thursday afternoon with enthusiastic cheers for William J. Bryan and for the Iowa state ticket. The so-called liquor plank, which was adopted by a good majority, simply affirms the traditional policy of the party with reference to local self-government.

The afternoon proceedings also witnessed an interesting light between four of the leading Democratic jurists of the state for the nominations for judges of the supreme court. On a roll-call vote by counties D. W. Higgins of Creston and Judge A. J. Hanson of Naquokota were the winners by substantial majorities. The other two candidates were Capt. W. H. Jacques of Ottumwa and Theodore Bradford of Marshalltown.

The resolutions adopted express gratification over the prospect for the nomination of Bryan for president; commend Claude R. Porter and Fred E. White, candidates respectively for United States senator and governor; demand election of senators by popular vote; denounce "government by injunction and its putative father;" indorse legislation for improved roads and waterways; denounce prevailing freight rates as a discrimination against the people of Iowa, and favor greater powers for the state railway commission; demand enforcement of Iowa statutes against trusts and illegal combinations, and reaffirm "the traditional policy of the Democratic party with reference to self-government and home rule."

The state committee organized by the election of Lincoln Price of Indianola, chairman, and John F. Dalton of Manson secretary.

CHINESE REFORMING, SAYS DR. REINSCH

Interesting Lecture on These People Given at University Summer School.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., June 26.—"A wave of real patriotism seems to be sweeping over China, affecting all classes and all parts of the Empire," said Prof. Paul S. Reinsch of the department of political science at the University of Wisconsin, in a lecture on "Internal Changes in China," before the students of the summer session Thursday afternoon. Prof. Reinsch is an authority on international affairs, and in recognition of his services on various international congresses and committees, notably the Pan-American conference at Rio Janeiro in 1906, and the present Pan-American commission, Secretary Root has appointed him United States delegate to the Pan-American congress of science, at Santiago, Chile, next December.

Prof. Reinsch's lecture today was, in part, as follows:

"The decisive successes of Japan in the recent war were the last arguments that persuaded the Chinese government to undertake a thoroughgoing reform. Their bitter experience at the time of the Boxer outbreak and the great national losses which were caused by that movement had already predisposed the Chinese to strive for an improvement of their national life. At the present time a wave of real patriotism seems to be sweeping over China, affecting all classes and all parts of the Empire."

"This finds expression in the creation of patriotic and political societies, and in the growing fondness of the Chinese for martial display. This most peaceful of all the nations is suddenly becoming martial in its enterprises."

"The governmental reforms concern chiefly education and the more efficient organization of public administration. Education is not merely a pedagogical concern in China, as under their system the persons who carry on the government are selected on the basis of their intellectual attainments. The Chinese educational reform has two aspects. In the place of the old haphazard private education, the government has introduced a complete system of public schools, rising by degrees from the primary schools to be found in every village, to the high school, the provincial college, and the national university. The subject matter of education has also been changed. In place of a purely literary training, the efforts of educational institutions are now devoted to giving more complete training in scientific, mathematical, and historical subjects."

"The financing of a vast undertaking of this kind is naturally beset with great difficulties. The resources of the government are limited, and private benevolence is therefore relied upon to supplement the support given by the state."

"China has also begun to create a national army in place of the old inefficient provincial levies. The army already numbers about 200,000 armed and drilled in European fashion. "The third branch of reforming activity lies in the remodeling of the administrative service, making that more dependent upon central authority, and adding departments dealing with such interests as communication, commerce, and banking."

DENTIST

When teeth begin to decay they should be seen at once, so as to arrest the process of rotting. If taken in time, decay can be prevented in the teeth of old or young. But there must be no delay. Once decay starts, the whole set is liable to become contaminated. My specialty in life is to care for your teeth. I look after them in such a way as to prevent decay, or remove it when apparent and stop the rotting process.

My work will be Good Work. Good, as to quality—and good because it will be done with the thought constantly in mind of Not causing the least pain.

When it comes to prices you may depend upon getting a "square deal", as President Roosevelt says.

SUCCESSOR OF DEAN IS STILL UNKNOWN

Archbishop Messmer Appoints the Next Dean—New Man Will Be Here in Month or So.

Before leaving on his present trip to Europe, Archbishop Messmer, of Milwaukee, appointed a man to succeed the late Dean E. M. McGinnis in the case the Dean should pass away before the archbishop's return from his extended trip. While the name of this man is known only to a few of those most interested it is known that he is a Wisconsin priest.

The local parish is a somewhat difficult one to handle. The congregation is very large and is only moderately well off; that is, it is not a wealthy congregation. In view of these facts a successor would be chosen with regard to his past experience and his record as shown by his work in the past. It is expected that the new Dean will come to Janesville to take up his work within six weeks or two months.

The report is prevalent among those interested in the matter that Rev. Father Eugene Reilly of Lake Geneva is the man who has been appointed.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

U. S. A. W. V. Banquet and Hop: Members of Harry Gifford Chapter of the United Spanish American Veterans and ladies enjoyed a banquet and hop at their East Milwaukee street hall last evening. The tempting feast was served by the ladies and the good time was in progress until midnight.

Loss Partially Insured: Insurance carried by Pondleton & Gilkey on posts and poles and other property recently destroyed by fire at Oconto, amounted to $18,500 while the total loss was roughly estimated at the time was $75,000. The firm formerly conducted a lumber yard in Janesville and both members are well known here.

Witham Place to Be Sold: The contents of the Witham place at the corner of South Main and Sharon streets were removed today and it is understood that the property will soon be sold. Announcement of the permanent vacating of a resort which had become an intolerable nuisance will be welcome news to all residents in that locality.

Clara Miller Goes West: Clara Miller who received some newspaper mention a short time ago while acting in the role of a woman bartender at the Midway saloon, has departed for Glenwood Springs, Colo., and will make her future home there with a sister.

Quarantine Removed: The quarantine was removed from the residence of Reverend McIntyre on Tuesday last and the usual prayer meeting will be held this evening at the United Brethren church with the regular Sunday services.

Trimmed Flower Beds: For several days past the park committee have had a man at work in the Court house park weeding and trimming the flower and shrub beds and clipping the grass along the gutters. The improvement is marked.

Raise Wild Geese: William Boeche of 203 South River street is the proud possessor of three goslings. The parents of the goslings are two wild geese which belong to Mr. Boeche. Wild geese practically never breed in captivity and as a result Mr. Boeche considers the goslings quite a novelty.

Haying Tools Scarce This Year

The factories report all over that they have sold out on haying tools. Orders for them are being filled daily. This season's hay crop is going to be enormous and considerable difficulty is expected in the harvesting. Farmers who have not yet purchased their hay rakes, hay loaders and mowers will be very glad to get the news that I have just received a car load of the famous Dain side delivery hay rakes and Dain hay loaders. There is to be no advance in my prices owing to the scarcity this year and those I have on hand will be sold to my trade. I suggest that you order these goods early as they won't last.

I sell the famous McCormick Mowers which I consider the best in the market.

The Dain Hay Tools are generally known in this country and I can recommend them heartily as my experience with them is that each one sold makes a satisfied customer.

Call me up over either phone and have me reserve one until you can look it over.

IMMIGRATION FOR WISCONSIN.

The publisher is just in receipt of the first issue of a publication known as the Wisconsin Homeseeker, issued by the Chicago & North Western Ry. for the purpose of stimulating immigration to Wisconsin and furnishing information in regard to its natural resources.

A series of letters from settlers in the Homeseeker, in which these pioneers tell in an interesting way something of their experiences in establishing new homes and developing their land into profitable farms.

The North Western is desirous of securing as many more testimonials of this kind as possible. A letter from you would appear strongly to the prospective homeseeker, and every homeseeker is earnestly invited to write a letter telling of the crops, soil, climate, schools, the cost of getting a start, etc., for use in this manner, and send it to us together with the names and addresses of friends in the East who would be interested in having a copy of the "Homeseeker".

Illustrated books, maps and other literature mailed to them free of charge. Address all communications on the subject to Mr. W. R. Kiskern, P. O. M. C. & N. W. Ry., Chicago, Ill.

LOW ROUND TRIP RATES TO DENVER, COLORADO SPRINGS AND PUEBLO VIA CHICAGO, UNION PACIFIC & NORTH WESTERN LINE.

Tickets sold daily June 1st to September 30th. Return limit October 31st. Two fast through trains to Colorado daily. The famous Colorado special, only one night to Denver. For booklets, and full information, apply to any ticket agent of the North Western Line.

AFTON PEOPLE ARE PROUD OF MR. TRIPP

Old Veteran Republican Will Probably Have Honor of Casting First Vote in Township.

Afton, June 25.—Afton, in common with all other residents of Rock township, are pleased and gratified at the honors bestowed upon our aged fellow townsman, Hon. W. H. Tripp, at the great republican national convention, at Chicago, last week.

The invitation to Mr. Tripp to occupy a seat of honor on the stage and his reception by Chairman Henry Cabot Lodge and other leaders, was a graceful recognition of the long years of faithful and loyal party service and a fitting tribute of respect to one of the founders of the grand old party. Ave, of this voting precinct, are glad that our oldest voter could attend the national convention and when he drives down to Afton to cast his vote for Taft and Sherman this fall, if he is present when the polls open, other voters will step aside and wait until Mr. Tripp has had the honor of casting the first ballot. This mark of distinction has been accorded the republican veteran before in his home precinct and is a bit of recognition that appeals to every voter regardless of party affiliation or partisan zeal.

The Cemetery association is desirous of carrying forward the work of improvement, which was inaugurated with the inception of the organization five years ago and which has been prosecuted with determination and zeal each year since. When first taken in hand the cemetery was overrun with poison ivy, the trees were untrimmed, and grass and weeds grew in rank profusion, making an eyesore

MODEL ROADS UNDER CONSTRUCTION NOW

Highway Division of State Geological Survey Building Stretches of Roads to Show How Roads Should be Built of Sand, Clay, Stone and Gravel.
It is often said that most of the road taxes are wasted, and this statement is not contradicted by observing people. The saving of these wasted funds depends upon the knowledge the people have of the proper methods of building roads, and there is no better way of getting this knowledge than to see a road actually built in a proper manner.

In a number of places widely scattered over the state the Highway Division of the State Geological Survey is building model roads of various kinds. The localities where the roads are built furnish the labor and the material and the state furnishes an engineer to direct the work.

They will construct roads by putting clay and sand on roads, and sand on clay roads, to show the importance of thoroughly mixing the clay and the sand. The two will be plowed and dragged several times in order to get an even mixture as possible—for an uneven substance will never wear evenly.

After the sand and clay are thoroughly mixed the road will be dragged just after the first rain water it down. This last dragging will compact the road and puddle the clay so it will have hard just like a clay road when it is worked while too wet.

These roads will be built in several places. Stone and gravel roads will be built by methods designed to make them as permanent as possible. They will be laid in courses of carefully screened stone, the large stone on the bottom and the smaller on top. This screening is emphasized as it is necessary to provide that substance of even quality of which a road must be made to wear evenly.

If a macadam road is laid with large and small stone mixed the large stone will grind up first and holes will be formed.

All these model roads emphasize two fundamental things: first, that a road must have proper drainage, and second, that the surface provided—whether of sand, clay or stone—must be as even as possible in quality in order to wear evenly.

Roads are under construction or will soon be started at Harburo, Monroe, Sparta, Lake Mills, Oconomowoc, Waubesa, Colfax, and several other places.

PRETTY WEDDING OF EVANSVILLE COUPLE

Miss Ethel Lewis and Martin H. Hansen United in Marriage Thursday Noon.

Evansville, June 25.—The marriage of Miss Ethel Averna Lewis and Mr. Martin H. Hansen was solemnized at high noon today, June 25, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Lewis, 125 Liberty street. The rooms were artistically decorated for the occasion, pink roses with a profusion of green being employed with pleasing effect. As Mrs. T. W. North was playing Lohengrin's wedding march the bride party took their places beneath a large horse shoe of roses and ferns hanging in the parlor doorway which was also elaborately festooned with foliage and flowers. The words which united the happy couple were spoken by Rev. T. W. North, the bride being given away by her father. The bride wore a gown of white silk with lace trimmings and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Mayme Hewitt, of Janesville, was the maid of honor and Miss Zella Moore, the bridesmaid. The groom was attended by Mr. Harry Hansen, brother of the groom, and Mr. Harold Lewis, the bride's brother. The gifts from the bride and groom to their attendants were gold bracelets for the ladies and gold belt watch chains to the gentlemen. Immediately following the ceremony the wedding dinner was served on the lawn and the tables looked very pretty with center pieces of ferns. The guests were served by twelve young ladies all being members of the bride's Sunday school class. The bride and groom are among Evansville's most esteemed and worthy young people and both devoted workers in the Methodist church. Mr. Hansen is a son of Camp Douglas and holds a position as telegraph operator at the depot here. The wedding gifts were many and very beautiful. The couple drove to Brooklyn in the afternoon and took the 6:20 train at that station, hoping to escape without being showered with rice, but the half hundred friends who had gathered at the Evansville depot for that purpose were not to be outwitted and when the train pulled through here they were liberally showered with rice and roses. Mr. and Mrs. Hansen will take a four weeks' wedding trip, going first to Niagara Falls. Upon their return they will go to homekeeping in a pleasant cottage on Winter street where they will be at home to their friends after July 25. The wedding guests were numbered about fifty and were confined to relatives and intimate friends. Among those from out of town were the following: A. H. and Mrs. W. C. Constock and daughter Ida, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lewis, the Misses Flossie and Bessie Lewis, and the Messrs. Jensen and Charles Lewis, all of Albany; Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lewis, the Misses Pearl, Edith and Edith Lewis, Messrs. James, Lester, Albert and Fred Lewis, of Monticello; Miss Mayme Hewitt, of Janesville; and Harry Hansen, of Camp Douglas, and Mrs. O. E. Kettles of Attica.

Parties given members of the local Eastern Star, together with a number from Janesville and Brooklyn were delightedly entertained by the Footville chapter yesterday at the home of Mrs. W. H. Cary. The members of this lodge took part in the program were Mrs. P. C. Wilder and Mrs. D. P. Heddes, who rendered vocal solos and sang a duet. Miss Edna Hubbard gave a reading and Miss Edna Townsend, a recitation. All speak in the highest praise of the Footville chapter as entertainers.

Robert Richardson has gone to Minnesota for an indefinite stay. The Rev. Father Fitzgerald is spending today in Edgerton. Miss Leta Acheson will go to White-water on Saturday to attend summer school.

Miss Emma Kutz is home from Janesville for a two weeks' vacation. Mrs. Lora McGowan of Lyons, Wis., was a guest of Mrs. Fred Winston, a part of this week. A party of young ladies composed of the Misses Hattie Chaplin, Florence Lewis, Luella Moore, Mary Eberlein, Pearl Heffel, Emma Kutz, and Edna Lewis will go to Kogonka Saturday to spend a few days at the Porter cottage.

FLAG DROOPS HERE AND WORLD OVER

Mayor Heddes Last Evening Directed Half-masting of Colors on all City Buildings.

This being the day set for the funeral of ex-President Grover Cleveland, Mayor Stewart H. Heddes has directed that the flag be displayed at half mast from the city hall and the three stations. At the federal building President Cleveland's proclamation has been heeded and from the court house and other public buildings the stars and stripes pay their silent tribute of respect. In every part of the civilized world there is mourning today. All military posts and stations, diplomatic and consular offices have been notified to display flags at half mast for thirty days and not only do the colors droop at all naval stations and aboard all ships of war, but salutes have been fired every half hour from sunrise this morning and will continue until sunset. The same observance prevails in the Brazilian navy, Brazil having accorded special honors to the memory of Mr. Cleveland who, during his first term as president, served as arbitrator in determining the boundary line between that country and Argentine Republic.
